Objective 4.1

Proportional representation of Aboriginal people in Yukon government workforce in different occupations and classification levels

Numbers and ratios of Yukon First Nation/Aboriginal people are based on the 2014 YG Workforce Census conducted by the Yukon Bureau of Statistics on behalf of the Public Service Commission, census forms received subsequently by the Public Service Commission, and additional data sources. Not every YG employee responded to the survey and some employees are reluctant to self-identify (voluntary declaration).

Aboriginal representation

Overall Yukon First Nation and other Aboriginal representation

Aboriginal representation in Yukon government increased in 2015/16. A total of 15% of all Yukon government employees are of Aboriginal ancestry: 8% of all Yukon government employees are of Yukon First Nations ancestry, and 7% are of other Aboriginal ancestry.

Yukon First Nation and other Aboriginal representation by job level and salary (March 31, 2016)

Proportion of Aboriginal employees (grouped by Yukon First Nation and other Aboriginal membership) in job level groups

Within Yukon government, 15% of all employees are of Aboriginal ancestry. The following chart shows the proportion of Aboriginal employees in different job level groups.

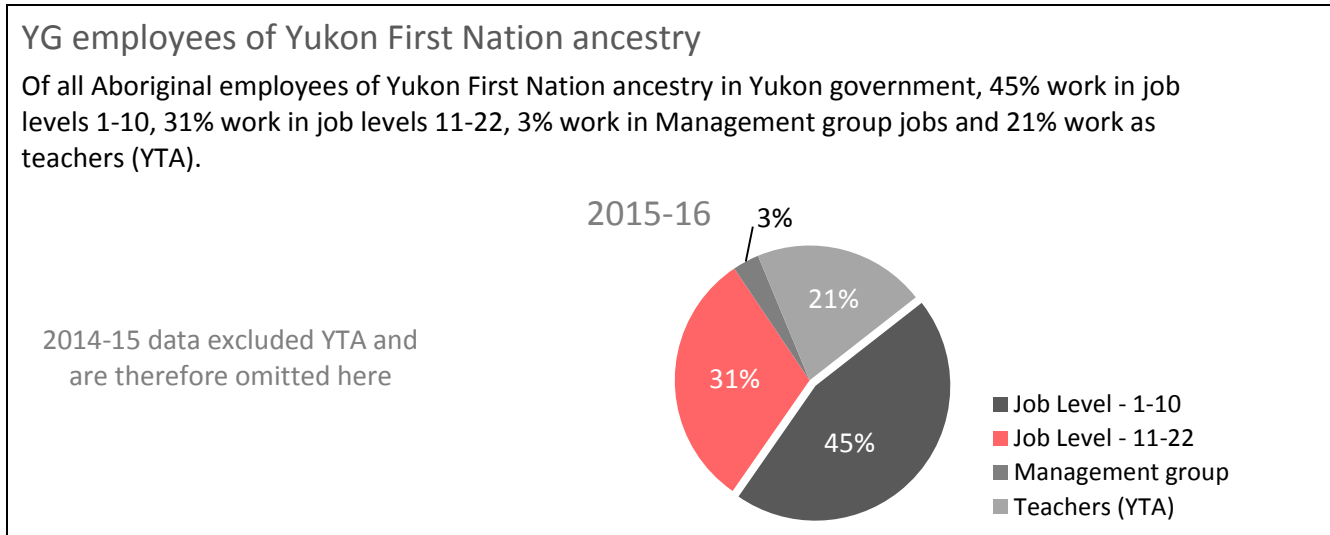

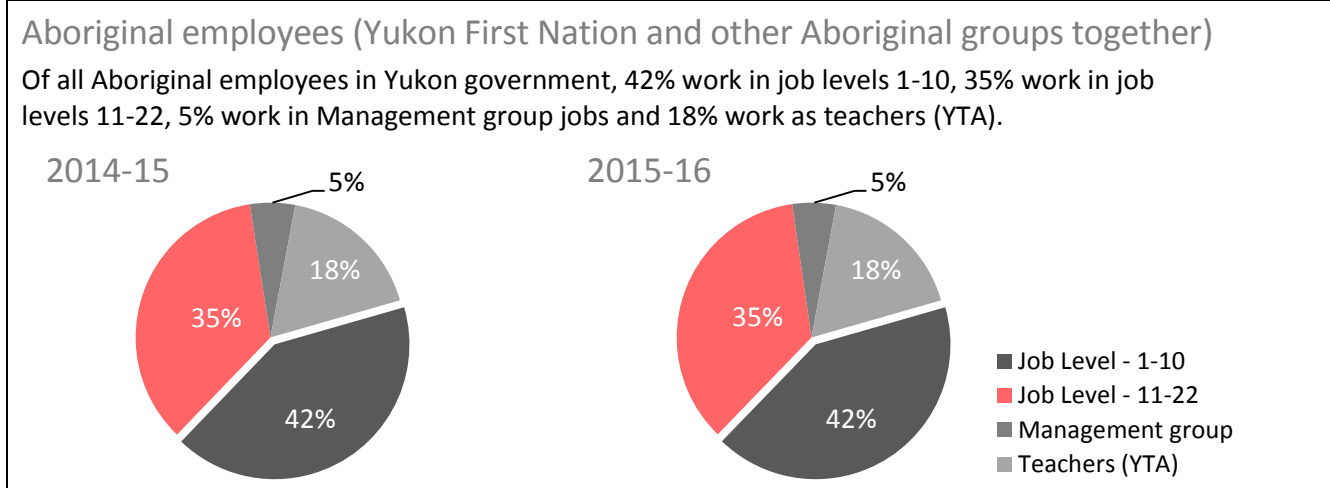

- Of the YG workforce census respondents who are job levels 1-10: approximately 18% of employees are Aboriginal and the remaining 82% are non-Aboriginal.
- Of the YG workforce census respondents who are job levels 11-22: approximately 11% of employees are Aboriginal and the remaining 89% are non-Aboriginal.
- Of the YG workforce census respondents who are in the Management group: approximately 7% of employees are Aboriginal and the remaining 93% are non-Aboriginal.
- Of the YG workforce census respondents who are Teachers: approximately 18% of employees are Aboriginal and the remaining 82% are non-Aboriginal.

The ratios presented show the percentage of employees who self-identified themselves as Yukon First Nation or other Aboriginal people in each job level group based on all YG Workforce Census participants. Legislative Assembly positions are excluded from the job level analysis. 'Management group' includes managers (MG), Legal Officers (LE) and Deputy Ministers (DM); Educational Consultant level jobs (EC00) and AR00 are grouped with 'Job Level 11-22'.

Distribution of Aboriginal employees (grouped by Yukon First Nation and other Aboriginal membership) across job level groups

Percentages are derived from YG Workforce Census respondents that self-identified as Yukon First Nation or other Aboriginal persons.
