Co-op Notes:

Generally, the rate of pay selected should allow for a meaningful progression in the salary range on subsequent assignments. At the discretion of the manager, pay at any step above the minimum may be paid:

- to students who possess some relevant previous work experience; or
- where there is a shortage of students in the field of study required; or
- when a university degree or year of study is required as a pre-requisite for another program – such as a bachelor of law, education, medicine, pharmacy or veterinary sciences program.
